At Newport.

CINCINNATI. Dec. 27.—Jockey Cunningham, the star rider at the Newport meeting, had a narrow escape from death in the last race to-day. He was on Tour, the well-played second choice, who was leading at the three-quarter pole. In some unaccountable manner the filly got away from her rider and turning swidenly out of her path boiled for the outside fence. She turned completely over in the air, throwing Cunningham at least five feet over her head. The boy lay as if dead for a moment, but when assistance arrived he came to all right and said he feit not a bit the worse from the thrilling experience he had. The bome was not injured. Weather snowy; track frozen.

Tommy Ryan Wants to Take Jack Munroe Under His Wing.

Tommy Ryan is of the opinion that Jack funroe, the Anaconda miner, who jumped into prominence by staying four rounds with Jim J. Gries recently, has all the requirements that go to make a champion and accordingly wants the chance to train him. Ryan has arrived in Chicago and declared himself in this way immediately upon his arrival. Those who know Ryan intimately say that he is one of the best trainers in the business and that Munroe would undoubtedly profit if he permitted Ryan to take him in tow.

When Billy Brady first brought Jim Jeffries to this city from the Pacific Coast he was nothing but a raw 'un, figuratively speaking. He had the muscle and brawn, the ability to withstand gruelling punishment, but he did not know very much about the fine points of the game. He showed his deficiency in this direction by appearing at the Lenox A. C. and agreeing to stop two heavyweights in one ring on the same night. Jeffries, however, failed. Then Ryan was engaged and he showed Jeffries a few tricks, which the Bollermaker introduced in his contest with Bob Fitzsimmons at Coney Island for the title. Ryan also trained Bharkey for the latter's bout with Kid McCoy, which the former sailor won. Knowing all of J. ffire's weak and strong points and his methods of fighting, it is easy to see how if he takes Munroe in charge Ryan can fit him at least to give Jeffries a hard battle.

"I consider McGovern as good a drawing card today as any," said Harris, "and we would be foolish to enter into such a compact. I do not know how the statement originated, but, nevertheless, I wish to deny, as strongly as the public print can make it, a story so absurd. Corbett will receive the same as Terry, and that is all."

Young Corbett expects to come to New York next week. He is at present in Cincinnati. He does not do any training and attends the theatre every night. In a recent interview Corbett said:

"The fighting game is not what it is cracked up to be. The only thing for me to do now is to hang around and wait. My bout with McGovern is just as remote as ever, but I will fight him, you can bet, some day. Maybe by next week I will be able to hear something from Bob Gray of the Southern A. C. of Louisville, as its whether he wants to hold the tilt. If he doesn't there won't be any beating about the bush; we will so to Saa Francisco and have it out there."

FOOTBALL AT COLUMBIA. Varsity Eleven Will Have an Experienced Trainer Next Fall.

The agitation at Columbia University for a football trainer as well as a head coach has days ago the Spectator, the student news-paper, revived the agitation in an editorial, which said in part.

"Looking back once more over the football cases there appears to be one lesson which sea should especially heed. This season the hysical condition of the men seems to have been pretty accurately reflected in the scores. We believe that we are voicing the consensus of undergraduate and football origino when we say that the lesson we have learned at the necessity of having a trainer for the football encessity of having a trainer for the football team. At Pennsylvaria the strongest cases were developed under the care of Murphy. Now that he has gone to Yale the West Haven eleven is the strongest on the critical manner of football or the critical manner. At the properties of the critical manner of football or the critical manner of football manner of football or the critical manner of football or season there appears to be one lesson which we should especially heed. This season the In reply to this editorial Richard S. Smith, captain of the '03 team, has issued the following statement:

"The graduate coaching system has proved itself all that was to be hoped for; that it will be a permanent feature can be seen by the vigorous and successful efforts put forth to induce William Raymond Morley to head the coaching staff or 1908. Besides an experienced coaching staff an efficient trainer will be secured and the men will be kept in the best condition possible. Every effort is being made to arrange a schedule that will bring out to the best advantage the ability of the team, and the present outlook is very encouraging for a successful season."

The Speciator replies as follows:

"We are very glad that Capt. Smith is in favor of our policy. His statements give us welcome assurance as to the attitude of the football team. Next year we trust that we shall be able to attribute a successful season, in some measure, to the fact that Columbia has an able trainer."

WRESTLING. Neuralah, th England-McLood Willing Give Jenkins Another Bout.

Dan McLeod, who defeated Tom Jenkins for the catch-as-catch-can championship of America at Worcester on Christmas Day, america at Worcester on Christmas Day, arrived in town yesterday. McLeod carries his new laurels modestly, yet seems to be happy over what he terms a well-earned victory. Speaking of the match McLeod says: "It has been my ambition all along to beat Jenkins and at last I have succeeded. knew right along that I was his master, and those who witnessed the bout will agree and those who witnessed the bout will agree that I won on my merits. I see Jenkins says that he quit because his leg was injured and that he was afraid of blood poisoning. Well, that may look feasible to some, but the general public will not swallow that gag Jenkins to all appearances was fit, and in good trim when the bout started. The way he started negotiations for the first fall proves that he was strong and out to down me. But I was strong and out to down me.
But I was well supplied with strength, too, and gave back as good as I received. I am not afraid of Jenkins nor any man breathing.

The challenge of Alex Swansen of Yonkers to meet George Bothner for the lightweight title is not taken seriously by the followers of the game. Although Swansen in a num ber of his matches has shown strength and cleverness, it is not believed that he can de-feat Bothner. Regarding Swansen's defi, Bothner said yesterday to a reporter of "Swansen is one of my pupils and I taught him most all he knows about the game. Still, he has a perfect right to challenge me. I for a big side bet, say $500, because without this inducement on the outside a match would not be worth the while. Swanser is not known, finally borne fruit, as Capt. PEDLAR PALMER'S LAST FIGHT. Accounts of ex-Bantam Champion's Mill With Curiey Show He Is Still Clever.

The account of the recent contest between Pedlar Palmer and Will Curley at Ginnett's Circus, London, for $500 aside and a purse of $1,000, which is at hand, shows that despite als defeat, the former bantam champion of the world is still clever. Curley gave Palmer a bad drubbing, but in the face of the onslaught Pedlar never flinched. The London Mirror of Life of Dec. 17 has this to say of the "Pedlar Palmer and Will Curley met at Ginnett's Circus on Monday night to contest the best of fifteen two-minute rounds, for £100 a side and a purse of £200. The other condi-tions were that Curley had to weigh in at 8st. 13st., while Palmer came at catchweight. Tremendous interest was taken in the contest, and the house was crowded in almost every part. In the preliminaries Barney Sloan beat J. McAudle on points; George Grey retired at the end of the first round against J. Lynn; Joe Carpenter knocked out J. Leach in two rounds, and Darkey Carpenter won against J. Coulthard on points.

"Then came the event of the evening for which Curley was seconded by Bobby Ryan, Tom Murphy, Jack Palmer and Jack Fulton; Palmer by Jack Grant, Spider Carr and Billy Bell. After Mr. Lowes had introduced the men, they faced each other amid the greatest exoitement. Palmer landed two lefts quickly to open, and then Curley tried his right and got hard on the body. Palmer was very sharp and repeatedly got houne both hands and ducked the returns. Curley used his right well on the body just as the round closed. For the second bout Curley landed the left hard on the nose, and after a clinch tried the right. Even exchanges followed, and, though Curley forced matters, Palmer was too slippery for his right. Curley again opened the third round on the face, and then got in a swinging left on the body. Palmer retaliated on the wind, and in some hurricane fighting there was not much to choose between the two. Once Pedlar went to the boards from a right, but was soon up and returned the compliment, but was a bit too high.

GYMNASTICS AT COLUMBIA. SPORTS AT BARNARD COLLEGE.

Young Women Are Filled With Ambitton to Shine in Various Fields. DR. SAVAGE PRESENTS HIS RE-

This Season—Over 1,000 Physical Examinations Show Satisfactory Results-Swimming Receives Attention. Dr. Watson L. Savage, director of the Columbia University symnasium, reviews the athletic and symnasium work of the year at the university in his annual report to President Nicholas Murray Butler. The docu-ment is replete with information and statistics. The attendance on the main floor aggre-gated 22,799 during the six important months, as compared with 20,479 a year ago. Last January 5,006 students exercised on the main floor, an increase of 1,500 in a single year. The smallest attendance, 1,755, was in April, when the athletic teams began out-of-door practice. The daily average for six months was 321 as against 187 in 1801. Concerning the use of the gymnasium swimming pool, Dr. Savage says:

"During the year a slight increase was noted in the use of the swimming pool, the figures showing a total attendance of 22,661, as against 21,975 for the same period last year. Fifty students were taught to swim and much more nstruction was given in advanced swimming than ever before." Dr. Savage recommends that Prof. Holroyd be instructed to give his entire time to teaching men how to swim Aithough the gymnasium provides 1,516 separate lockers the director fears that the accommodations will soon be outgrown and suggests that provision be made for future extension. Speaking of physical examina-tions and accidents the report says in part: "Over one thousand physical examinations have been made during the year, and 395 pass cards have been issued for candidates for athletic teams: 180 of this number were permitted to participate in sports of the first class: 201 in sports of the second class. and the remaining fourteen in the third or lowest class sports. About a dozen others were barred from various grades of athletics.

"The director's office has been visited more freely for consultation and inquiry as to medical treatment and over one bundred more freely for consultation and inquiry as to medical treatment and over one hundred dressing and minor operations have been made during the year. It is gratifying to note that accidents within the department have been almost nil, there being now whatever of a serious nature."

Dr. Savage reviews at some length the success of the indoor athletic teams and comments in general as follows.

"An active interest has been taken in all branches of indoor sport and the year also has been successful from the standpoint of competition with other colleges. The interesting factor in these contests is the steady improvement noted in the Columbia teams during the progress of the season so that an excitent showing was made in the important meetings at the close. The intercollegiste champions in was won by the water-pole, relay swimming, handball and basketball teams, and second honors were won by the gymnastic team, fencing team and in the strength teats."

A final point which attracts the director's attention is outlined in the report as follows:

"The number of applications received for instructors in gymnastics is a new and welcome feature. Such positions have been recorded from over twenty colleges, schools and other institutions, and several of this number, local in character, have been filled by stidents of the University. In offering these iloses a difficulty appears in the fact that students taking up such work become professionals and are barred from further participation in college athletics."

The report shows progress and development in every form of athletic interest connected with the gymnasium at Columbia.

Crewe. It was decided that the 1903 championship should be held at Northampton. Notice was given that at the next general meeting it would be moved that in future the rules be altered to permit the annual championship to be permanently held at London. It was argued that the meeting has become an international fixture and in view of that the metropolis is the only place for it. The secretary announced that from the two championship meetings of 1902 there was a profit of £103.

After a long discussion it was decided the following addition to exemption (c) the law 1 of the amateur definition That navy and army competitors, not being commissioned officers, competing for money prizes at meeting held at purely naval or military sports, under the control of naval or military authorities, shall be exempt from the laws of the A. A. A. for competing at such meetings, always provided that they are not disqualified by any other offence against the rules or laws of the A. A. This exemption does not apply to the auxiliary forces.

Trying to Step Bexing in Chicago. An effort is under way to stop prizefighting n Chicago, as the reformers term the boxing bouts now being decided before the various athletic clubs. For the first time in many years the police and State officials are looking into the game and as a result the sport may be abolished altogether. Kid Carter and George Gardner of Lowell, who are slated to meet to-morrow night will be the first to feel the effects of the uprising and it is likely that their mill will not be permitted to come off. Acting Governor Nort-cott has, it is said instructed the Sheriff to stop the affair. The first intimation that there was something doing came when the Sheriff received a letter from Springfield, Ill., warning him that he must not permit any violation of the law. Up to date the Sheriff says that he has not seen any violation, but will not tolerate any. He adds: "At present two clubs in Chicago are holding bouts. They are the American A. C. and the Lyceum A C. Both are chartered or gasiza ions and have pe mits to hold contests. Thus far neither club has fostered or held a fake mill."

Columbia's 'Varsity basketball team is in a bad way at the present time due to injuries and staleness. Pisher has a muscle torn from his rib and H. C. Townsend of the football team and Frank Goodman, the baseball catcher, have wrenched knees from playing in cages and small gymnasiums. In addition Frank L. O'Connell, the centre, who ran all during the fall with the cross-country team, has gone stale and is in Vermont trying to recuperate before the intercollegiate league games begin on Jan. 13. Columbia was the first of the colleges to begin its basketball schedule this year, having played continuously since Dec. 4.

Barnard College has imbibed the athletic spirit of the male colleges and athletic organizations are being successfully formed by the young women. At the present time there is in existence a golf club, a chess club a tennis club, a basketball club and a pingpong club in addition to the Barnard Athletic association, which is the central body in control of all sports at the college. The chease control of all sports at the college. The cheas club only came into existence last week when Miss Lillian Wiesner, '06, was chosen cap-tain of a team yet to be developed. The golf club is planning an active spring season with possible intercollegiate matches with Vassar and Bryn Mawr.

The tennis club played one dual match with

Vassar and Bryn Mawr.

The tennis club played one dual match with Bryn Mawr in the spring. In the fall championship tournament the final round still remains to be played, as the fall of snow interrupted the tournament. The three upper class championships were won as follows: Senior, Miss Elsbeth Kroeber of Bryn Mawr. Pennsylvania; junior, Miss Jean Dunbar Egleston of Elizabeth. N. J.; sophomore, Miss Edith Berkeley Handy of Staten Island. In the semi-final round, Miss Handy defeated Miss Egleston and will meet Miss Kroeber for the coilege championship.

The recently organized ping-pong club elected Miss Amy Hill., '05, manager and Miss Cecil Insiee Dorrian, '05, secretary. It has already enrolled fifty-two members, Miss Alice Draper, '05, is the treasurer of the general athletic association.

Basketball is the most active sport at the college. Besides the 'Varsity there are class teams which have arranged a regular schedule of outside games. The 'Varsity has scheduled games with Teachers' College, the Barnard Alumne and others, besides a return game with Normal College to be played at the Barnard gymnasium on Jan. 24. The 'Varsity players are as follows: Forwards, Miss Helen Wilking-Cooley, '05, and Miss Cecil Insiee Dorrian, '05: centres, Miss Abigail Taibot, '05, and Miss Annie Fisher, '04: guards, Miss Hargie Hoffman, '05, and Miss Anna Reiley, '05 On the freshman team are Miss Edith Somborn and Miss Caroline Hall, forwards, Miss Belle Russell, centre, and Miss Irma Seligman and Miss Virginia Ralph, guards. Both teams have been coached by Trevelyan G. Cook of the Fanwood A. C., who is also coaching the Columbia team and are now in condition to play their scheduled match games. Gymnastics and swimming come in for some attention at Barnard, but no teams have as yet been organized in these departments of sport.

Hawkins yesterday received word that pan his arrival in London he will get a chance to box Jabez White, the English lightweight champion, before the National Sporting Club.

Bobby Dobbs's draw with Jem White at Cardiff, England, recently, has helped him to win back a number of admirers who thought that the once noted negro lightweight's art as a purillat had deteriorated. Dobbs is now in a position to command a lot of backing. I says that he has found one man who is willing to invest $2,000 on his chances to beat any one in England at the lightweight limit.

Bowling Notes.

A meeting will be held in the near future for the purpose of organizing the Harlem Circle League tournament, in which twenty-one teams will be allowed to participate. will be allowed to participate.

The Fidelias, which are the undisputed champions of the United States, will celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary by holding a reception at the Lexington Opera House in March.

The A. O. U. W. Bowling League officials have decided to hold their tournament at the Harlem Circle Palace alleys, beginning early in February. Twenty-one teams will probably compete.

Four players have an average of over 190 in the Harlem League tournament, as follows: Simpaon, fourteen Eanes, 196 9-14; Stiefel, fourteen fames, 1984; Schaeffer, twelve games, 194 1-12; MacDonald, sixteen games, 191.

The members of the Lafayettes have satisfied frames, 19814; Schaeffer, twelve games, 194 11-12; MacDonald, slateen games, 191.

The members of the Lafayettes have satisfied the Executive Committee of the Riverside League tournament that there was no truth in the report that their club did not hold weekly practice games, and the team will take part in the burner, which will begin on Jan. 12. The officers of this league are E. R. Thompson, Phenix Bowling club, pressident; F. A. Geisler, Knickerbocker Bowling Club, vice-prealdent; A. H. Slevers, Rossedale Bowling Club, treasurer, and J. F. Tompson, Morris Bowling Club, secretary.

With fifteen teams already entered it is expected the additional six teams needed to complete the list will be entered on the membership list when the Women's Bowling League holds its final meeting on Jan. 7. Some of the teams have several good bowlers, and in order to be in trim when the tourney begins the fair-sex bowlers are practising at the Hariem Circle Palace alleys, where the competition will be decided.

Practically all arrangements were completed for the Manhaitan Borough Championship tournament at a meeting held at the Yorkville alleys last night, the following clubs entering teams. Morningside, Stickers, Reform, Hottentst, Cipper, Cyclone, Bruadway, Circle, Brookside, Caustitution, Cable, Nordeleutscher, Hamilt mina, Smithonian, Hudson, Getham, Royal Areanum Wheelmen, Harlem Circle, Pan-American and Fark, The Emersons withdrew their application and the Actives may fill the vacancy. Henry H. Meinten was elected president; F. W. Prior, Jr., vice-president; J. Wittmer, scoretary, and L. F. Schutte, treasurer.

Y., Dec. 27 .- Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ambrose Clark of New York, Stephen Carlton Clark of Yale, and a party of a dozen friends arrived in Cooperstown at noon to-day aboard the private car "Kansas." Lieut. Robert Sterling Clark, U. S. A., now stationed in Washington, and more guests arrived on the evening train. Sleighs met them at the trains and conveyed them to "Iroquois Farm," the new country place of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clark. Here the young people will remain until after New Year's. A series of entertainments has been provided for the next five days, and it will be one continual round of days, and it will be one continual round of pleasure. It will in reality be a housewarming, for Mr. Clark is opening his country house for the first time this evening. Snow is two feet deep here and there are indications that sleigh rides will be a feature of the entertainments. Yesterday a big sleigh, with a seating capacity of twenty, was completed and delivered by a local firm to "Iroquois Farm." The sleigh is painted a flaming red and will be drawn by four horses. Bishop and Mrs. Potter, the latter the mother of the Messrs. Clark, did not come up, and the Clark mansion "Fernleigh," will not be opened.

C. B. Macdonald has returned from a business trip to Chicago. The final for the Gerden City Golf Club championship between Micdonald and Trays, however, is contingent on the links being in fine condition and it will hardly be played before the spring. Travis is not of the snow-defying order of golfers and prefers bowling to any other winter pastime. The weekly club dinner and dance brought a crowd to the Yountakah Country Club last night and was a great success.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Golf union of Great Britain, held in London, on Dec. 18, it was decided to hold the annual championship at Portrush, Ireland, on May 5, 4, 7 and 8. The entries close on April 21 and the draw will be made at the general meeting on April 24. When the St. Andrews links was refused to the women this year it was thought that the use of the famous course would be tendered for 1993, but the Scots are evidently still obdurate regarding the right of the fair sex to try golfing in a serious way.

Jack Munroe Coming East to Go on the Stage.

Local followers of pugilism will soon have a chance to size up Jack Munroe, the man who gave Jim Jeffries such a hard tussle at Butte, Mon. According to a despatch from Butte, Munroe has accepted an offer to go on the stage with a theatrical show at a large salary. A Boston vaudeville company offered $500 a week for six weeks for him on the stage. Muproe accepted and is only waiting for the signed contract before start-ing East. Munroe's first stop will be in this city. Regarding his would-be challengers, Tom Sharkey and Kid McCoy, Munroe has city. Regarding his would-be challengers, Tom Sharkey and Kid McCoy, Muaroe has this to say:

"As soon as my theatrical engagements end I will take care of these two men. I shall be ready to box McCoy provided he posts a large forfeit in real money (no checks go with me) and agrees to bet some coin on the outside. The idea of McCoy stopping me i four rounds is silly. If McCoy is on his feet at the end of the limit it will be because he has learned how to fight since the last time I saw him. Fitz or Jeffries can stop McCoy in two rounds without doubt. The whole thing is that McCoy is too light. As for Sharkey, why I will give him a crack at me any time. He is the man that I would like to box most. After my engagements I will talk business with him. But Sharkey, like the Kid, will have to put up real live Uncle Sam's greenbacks before I discuss shop with him.

Over a score of well-known skaters met yesterday morning in the first interscholastic handicap race of the season at the Clermont Rink in Brooklyn. The pace was very fast from the start. On the twelfth lap the leaders got into a bunch, and on next to the last lap S. Eldredge of the "Poly Prep" School, W. Phipard of Public School 44 and A. Titus of Public School 77 shot out and had a ding-dong race of it, Eldredge winning by two leet from Phipard.
